Peaceful Pictures

Our family celebrated Joe's graduation from Luther Rice Seminary in May. While at home we had the opportunity to have family pictures made.

We are excited about the upcoming arrival of Levi Pace in October. Zoe prayed long and hard for this baby. John and Ali are excited also.

Chuck has made two more mission trips to Lebanon this spring. We thank the Lord for this opportunity and also for the safety He afforded Chuck and the team.

We especially are so thankful for the family that He has blessed us with. We are about to spend our annual vacation together and are so thankful that this is a loving peaceful time of fellowship.

Peaceful Principles

James said in chapter three of his book, "And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace." John Blanchard paraphrases this verse in this manner, "Peace makers, who sow in peace raise a harvest of righteousness."

The word 'peace' is quiet, restful oneness. In our day when there is so much fighting on a national level, church level, and home level let us take up Paul's admonition, "Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bonds of peace..." I speak not of compromising the truth in order to get along. I speak of being right upward and outward. Let us not forget our Lord's words, "Blessed are the peace-makers for they shall be called the children of God." Are we doing all in our homes and churches to produce quiet, restful oneness? Don't forget, there will be a harvest from what we are sowing.
